

Modern Slavery Act 2015

Compliance Statement

This statement confirms that Pajunk® UK Medical Products Limited directors and stakeholders have read and understood the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and agree with its principles. We will undertake to meet the requirements wherever possible, by keeping our processes under review and take active steps to minimise any activities of slavery or trafficking within our business and our supply chain.

Human dignity is incorporated into our business culture and is documented within our Social Responsibility Policy.
